7. RULES

The fencing competition will be held in accordance with the FIE Rules that are in force at the time of this competition.

8. DURATION AND SCORING

Individual Events:

In the preliminary pool round, the object of about is to effectively score 5 hits in three [3] minutes. At the end of three [3] minutes, if there is a difference of at least one hit between the scores of the two fencers, the fencer who has scored the greater number of hits is declared the winner. If at the end of regulation time the scores are equal, the fencers fence for a deciding hit, with a maximum time limit of one [1] minute. Before the fencing recommences, the Referee draws lots to decide who will be the winner if scores are still equal at the end of the extra minute.

In Epee, if the two fencers reach a score of 4 – 4, they must fence for a deciding hit, up to a time limit.

In direct elimination, the bouts will consist of three [3] periods of three [3] minutes, with [1] minute between the periods, or until one fencer has scored 15 hits. As an exception, in sabre, the first period ends either at the expiry of the three [3] minutes or when one of the fencers has scored 8 hits. If the third period is completed before either fencer has scored 15 hits, the fencer with the most hits will be declared the winner. If at the end of regulation time the scores are equal, the fencers fence for a deciding hit, with a maximum time limit of one [1] minute. Before the fencing recommences, the Referee draws lots to decide who will be the winner if scores are still equal at the end of the extra minute.

Team Events:

Till the table of 16, each elimination match will consist of three [3] bouts, to a maximum of 15 hits. Each bout will last three [3] minutes, or until one team's score has reached the next multiple of 5 hits after the first bout, a score of ten hits after the second bout, and a score of 15 after the third bout. If the third bout is completed before either team has scored 15 hits, the team with the most hits will be declared the winner. If at the end of regulation time the scores are equal, the fencers fence for a deciding hit, with a maximum time limit of one [1] minute. Before the fencing recommences, the Referee draws lots to decide who will be the winner if scores are still equal at the end of the extra minute.

From the table of 16 onwards, each match will consist of nine [9] bouts, to a maximum of 45 hits. Each bout will last three [3] minutes, or until one team's score has reached the next multiple of 5 hits after the first bout, a score of ten hits after the second bout, a score of 15 after the third bout, and so on. If the ninth bout is completed before either team has scored 45 hits, the team with the most hits will be declared the winner. If at the end of regulation time the scores are equal, the fencers fence for a deciding hit, with a maximum time limit of one [1] minute. Before the fencing recommences, the Referee draws lots to decide who will be the winner if scores are still equal at the end of the extra minute.
